

AN SPDE WITH THE DISTRIBUTIONS OF LÉVY PROCESSES AS ITS INVARIANT MEASURES

Bin XIE (The University of Tokyo)

We consider a linear heat equation with some properly regular noise which is constructed in such a manner that its invariant measures are a class of laws of Lévy processes. The assumption on the corresponding Lévy measure is mild. This is the joint work with Professor T. Funaki.