

FLUCTUATIONS OF THE 1D KPZ EQUATION

TOMOHIRO SASAMOTO
CHIBA UNIVERSITY

The KPZ equation is a well known non-linear stochastic PDE which describes surface growth phenomena. For the one-dimensional version, explicit formulas have been obtained recently for the one-point height distribution in a few cases including the wedge, flat and stationary initial conditions.

In this talk we will discuss these developments with an emphasis on the stationary situation.